DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1, 10, 14-18 and 20-22 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Krall (5,612,299).

Krall discloses a rechargeable battery power supply with load voltage sensing selectable output voltage and a wrist rest in Fig. 1. A first circuit converting an AC to DC converter 63, a second circuit for converting DC to DC converter 35, a third circuit filter 49, fourth circuit 65 and Fig. 7 shows the program module.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 12, 13 and 19 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Yilmaz et al. (5,715,156).

Yilmaz et al. disclose the claimed invention except for the range of output voltage. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to provide the range of output voltage, since it has been held that where the general conditions of a claim disclosed in the prior art, discovering the optimum or workable involves only routine skill in the art. In re Aller, 105 USPQ 233.

Double Patenting

5. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

6. Claims 1, 10 and 12-22 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-18 of U.S. Patent No. 6,700,808. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the application claims are broader than the patent claim.

Conclusion

7. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Yilmaz et al. disclose a method and apparatus for providing AC or DC power for battery powered tools. McDonald et al. disclose a dual input AC/DC to programmable DC output converter.
